ORDER

HEMANT GUPTA, J.

The defendants are in revision aggrieved against the order passed by the learned First Appellate Court, whereby defendant-petitioners were restrained from dispossessing the plaintiff from the suit property forcibly and illegally.

It is the case of the plaintiff that he being a member of Harijan Cooperative Land Society Mehal Kalan, is owner of the suit land and thus, in possession thereof and, therefore, the defendants cannot be permitted to interfere in his possession. The defendants have relied upon an agreement of purchase of the cultivating rights and that in pursuance of such agreement, the possession was delivered to the defendants.

The learned First Appellate Court has found that the revenue record supports the plea of the plaintiff the he is in possession of the suit land. Such presumption in respect of the revenue record is sought to be rebutted on the basis of an agreement which is an unregistered document. It is disputed question of law whether the possession was delivered to the defendants in pursuance of the aforesaid agreement. Therefore, on the basis of revenue record, the learned First Appellate Court has rightly found at the time of grant of ad interim injunction that the defendants cannot be permitted to dispossess the plaintiff from the suit land.

I do not find any illegality or irregularity in the order passed by the learned First Appellate Court, which may warrant interference of this Court in exercise of its revisional jurisdiction.

Dismissed.
